REGISTRATION TO BE HELD FOR ALL WHO WERE SICK

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday are Special Registration Days for the City of Maysville—Many To Be Listed.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week are Special Registration Days and these days offer the last chance for those who were kept from registering on the regular registration day on legal reasons.

Those who were ill or who were kept at home on account of illness and those who were out of the city on registration day will be permitted to call at the County Clerk's office during office hours and be properly listed in the ward in which they live thereby granting them the right to cast their ballots on election day. Those who live in the city and are not registered will not be permitted to vote in the regular election so it is very important that those who are entitled to register at this special registration avail themselves of this last opportunity to get in on the voting in November.

There are so many races and the campaign is so very interesting in each race, it is thought that all factions will be busily at work during these three days endeavoring to list all of their supporters on the registration books.

Only residents of the city of Maysville are required to register as residents of the county may vote without being registered.

BOATS GET OVER MANCHESTER BAR ON LOCAL DAM'S WATER.

The first boats to pass through the Maysville locks went through Friday evening when quite a number of steamer tows which have been laying at Cincinnati passed up endeavoring to get up-stream in time to bring back tows on the artificial rise coming next week. The boats were enabled to get over the Manchester bar and past the islands on the rise caused by the raising of the wickets in the local dam.

AMERICA TAKES GENERAL FOCH TO ITS HEART

Chief of Allied Army Receives Great Reception—Made Honorary Member of American Legion.

MARSHAL FOCH

Washington, Oct. 25. — The United States took Marshal Ferdinand Foch of France, soldier of soldiers of the Great War, to its heart Friday night on his arrival in the National Capital en route to Kansas City as the guest of his old comrades of the American Legion at their annual convention.

He was greeted with wild cheers at the Union Station when his special train came in from New York, and a roaring tribute followed him as he was whirled swiftly to the New Willard Hotel, where he will spend the night.

The only ceremony that marked the conclusion of the great French soldier's first day in American was his formal induction at the station into the American Legion itself.

He was made an honorary member of the George Washington Post, the National Chapter of the Legion, some time ago, and Lieutenant Commander Fish pinned on his breast the badge of membership as he stood in the President's waiting room at the station with General John J. Pershing beside him. French and American officers and officials grouped about, boys of the American Legion packed outside the structure and thousands of Americans waiting in the concourse to cheer him as he emerged.

The Eastland school will hold a pie and box social Tuesday evening, November 1st, at 7:30. All candidates are especially invited to attend. 29-21

All union barber shops close at 7 p. m. and Saturday's 10 p. m. on and after November 1st. 24Oct-17

Hear the special sermon to candidates, officials and voters at the Christian church Sunday morning.

CARR DIES AND SLAYER GIVES SELF TO THE SHERIFF

Clarence Shea Surrenders Himself to Court and Claims Self-Defense—Examining Trial To Be Held Tuesday Evening.

Lee Carr, who was shot at a dance at Mayslick Thursday night, died from the gun shot wound at Haystack Hospital Saturday morning at 5 o'clock. His body was removed to Higgins & Slattery's undertaking rooms and burial will be made in St. Patrick's cemetery at Washington Monday morning. Mr. Carr's father, brother and sister arrived here Saturday.

Clarence Shea, son of Crow Shea, of Ellisville, Nicholas county, came to Maysville Saturday morning with his father, Attorney Wm. Conley, of Carlisle, and several neighbors, and surrendered himself to the sheriff. Young Shea was taken immediately before County Judge H. P. Purnell and he was placed in the charge of Mr. Ross Owens as a Special Deputy Sheriff in whose charge the young man will be during the day and at night he will be surrendered to the jailer of the county. Young Shea is a veteran of the World War and is in very bad health.

Shea claims self-defense and claims that, without cause he was attacked by Carr. His version of the trouble is that he arrived at the Mayslick dance late and it had broken up. He was standing in the door of the dance hall when an automobile drove up containing Carr and some girls. Shea says Carr made some statement about being the best man in the crowd and that another man in the crowd answered him. Carr jumped from the auto, Shea says, and running up to him, struck him across the back of the neck with a "black jack." Shea says he backed away from Carr into the pike and told him not to come any farther but Carr advanced on him and then he shot.

Shea will be held under guard and in jail until Tuesday when the formal charge will be made.

MRS. JOHN D. TASH DIES IN CHICAGO

Mrs. W. J. Caplinger, representative of the Maysville Chapter Eastern Star, has just returned from Owensboro, Ky., where she has been attending the annual meeting of the Grand Chapter Eastern Star of the State of Kentucky.

At the Owensboro meeting the Maysville Chapter was signally honored by having one of its members, the present Past Worthy Matron, Mrs. C. S. Kirk, appointed by the new Grand Worthy Matron, Miss Anna Maude McAnley, as one of the officers of the Grand Chapter. Mrs. Kirk is commissioned as Grand Martha, one of the principal officers of the state body. The compliment is a very high one not alone to the local Chapter but to Mrs. Kirk and speaks highly of Mrs. Kirk's ability in the work of the order and the appreciation of the state body for the splendid showing she has made in the Maysville Chapter.

Mrs. Kirk was one of the charter members of the Maysville Chapter and had much to do with its organization.

She was a member of the Stonelick Baptist church and was a life long resident of this county, being born and reared near this city. She was a daughter of the late Thomas and Mary Williams of the county.

PERSHING ORATES IN FRENCH.

On receiving a gold medal from the City of Paris, Gen. Pershing undertook to deliver his response in French. It is said that he spoke "slowly and painstakingly" and so "weakened and had much difficulty."

Most of the distinguished foreigners who visit the United States do not seem to have much trouble in speaking English. They deliver addresses in public with admirable ease and self-possession, and pronounce the English words with scarcely a trace of accent. Even though their pronunciation is not always sure, it is apparent that they are surprisingly familiar with our language.

Gen. Pershing is no exception among our leading men. American publicists and business men are not linguists. Few of them would have the assurance to try to deliver an address in a strange, probably an unknown, tongue.

Statesmen of Europe are acquainted with two or three languages. In fact, a large percentage of the people of most Continental countries can speak in at least two languages. Americans are deficient in this respect for the reason that we can and do get along exclusively with English. But our participation in international trade will force us to master a language of two besides our own.

LAZZARONE LAMENTATION.

The Italian Ambassador has given a statement to the press of his country in which he refers to the proposals that the United States cancel the allied debts as "a vain illusion and useless rhetoric." He goes on to say that no political leader in this country would dare advocate such a solution of the financial situation, and advises his countrymen that they would take a more profitable attitude by refraining from further advocacy of debt cancellation. The advice of the Ambassador deserves the attention of others than Italians. Great Britain, France, and ten or more other nations owe the United States over $11,000,000. In many of them the suggestion is openly made that the debt ought to be cancelled by this country as a part of our contribution to the winning of the war. It will never be done, and friendly relations between the United States and those nations would be promoted if the subject should be dropped and not mentioned again.

Disarming the world will undoubtedly be a boon to civilization, but it is going to be Hades on the fellow who takes his girl automobile on a moonlight night.

PUPILS TO COMPETE IN SAFETY CAMPAIGN

Four Hundred Fifty State Prizes Offered to Grammar School Children.

Washington, D. C. — Seeking to reduce the number of automobile accidents, which take an annual toll of thousands of children's lives, the Highway Transport Education Committee is announcing a national safety campaign among grammar school pupils and grammar school teachers.

The campaign takes the form of two national essay contests. One is among pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades and the other is among grammar school teachers, who are being invited to prepare lessons teaching children safe behavior on the highways. "How I Can Make the Highways More Safe" is the subject on which the children are asked to prepare essays.

Four hundred fifty state prizes are being offered through the committee by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce in the hope that pupils will be stimulated to participate. The prizes have an aggregate value of $5,000 and are distributed among the states on a basis of elementary school enrollment. Teachers are offered three national prizes, the first of which is $500 in cash and a trip to Washington, the second and third prizes are $200 and $200 respectively.

An enthusiastic response from every section of the country has greeted the announcement. State, city and county superintendents of schools are lending the weight of their influence to the campaign and bringing the contests to the attention of pupils and teachers under their jurisdiction.

Mothers clubs, civic organizations, chambers of commerce, safety councils and other organizations that are interested in the welfare of the children of the country are assisting the committee in the national campaign which will culminate with the observance of "National Safety Week" December 4 to 10. The contests close Saturday, December 10, when all essays and lessons are to be in the hands of the principals of schools. After December 10 the best essays and the best lessons from each community will be chosen by competent committees and then forwarded to the state committee to be designated by the state superintendent of schools, or other influential persons. After the best essays and the best lessons have been chosen for the various states and territorial possessions, the state prizes in the pupils contests will be awarded and the manuscripts receiving state honors will then be forwarded to the committee in Washington.

Arrangements are being made for distinguished educators to read the state essays and the state lessons and to choose therefrom the ones entitled to the national honors.

Dr. John J. Tigert, United States Commissioner of Education, who is chairman of the Highway and Highway Transport Education Committee, has written the state and city superintendents requesting assistance. In his letter, Dr. Tigert said: "In order to reduce the appalling number of accidents on our streets and highways. I wish to call your attention to the safety educational program of the Highway and Highway Transport Education Committee. If not inconsistent with your policies, I trust we may have your hearty cooperation."

Shelbyville, Mo. — "I was only able to do light housework because for months my periods were excessive. I had seen your medicine extensively advertised and thought I would give it a fair trial. I took about eight boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets according to directions and I feel like a different woman. I have not taken any medicine during the past three months and I believe my ailment is cured. I am now able to do all my housework and attend to my poultry and garden. If you feel that my testimonial will benefit anyone you are welcome to use it in your advertisements." — Mrs. L. D. QUINLY, R. F. D. No. 2, Shelbyville, Mo.

The committee, which has offices in the Willard Building, is answering scores of inquiries daily from principals, teachers and pupils, who have signified their intention of participating in the campaign.

LET OF HABEAS CORPUS FOR MAN IN REFORMATORY.

Frankfort. — The second of what is expected to be a long series of suits for writs of habeas corpus to get convicts out of the state reformatory after they serve so much of their sentence as would allow freedom if time for good behavior was figured at ten days a month, was filed to secure the freedom of Phil Gentile, alias "Dago Foley," nationally known criminal, just finishing a term of eighteen months for robbery committed at Williamsburg.

Ledger Service—Efficiency

SHOWER IS SUCCESS.

The "Grocery Shower" at the First District school Wednesday evening was a very successful affair. A nice lot of foodstuff was brought by many interested patrons and friends of the school, and the members of the Parent-Teacher Association wish to thank one and all for their donations. Many more things were brought Thursday by those who were unable to attend Wednesday evening.

The address by Miss Hilda Threlkeld was most interesting and should have been heard by every voter in Maysville. She presented both sides of the "School Amendment" which is to be voted upon in the coming election, and after hearing it discussed in such an intelligent manner it was not hard for those present to draw their own conclusions and to decide in their own minds that to vote "yes" on the "School Amendment" will be far one of the big stepping stones to "Better Schools" in Kentucky. It is not a plan constructed by Governor Morrow as has been stated but a movement begun in 1911 by the Kentucky Educational Association, composed of teachers from all over the state and those persons interested in the progress of our schools.

The reading given by Mrs. E. P. Lee was splendid and it goes without saying that everyone enjoyed the music by the Boys' Band and hope they will favor us again sometime.

EASTERN STAR ELECTIONS

McElroy, Lebanon, past grand master Masonic Lodge of Kentucky associate grand patron; Mrs. Sarah K. You remember the story of the Pitcher—

It made a good many trips to the well and it came back in good order.

"I can take care of myself," it said—"they don't need to talk about risks to me."

But it went once too often.

After that it was only part of a pitcher, and they didn't need to talk to it about risks—it knew.

A lot of people won't believe coffee can harm them until it does harm them.

"Nonsense!" they say, "it never disturbs me."

When it does disturb them, then they know.

Often the disturbance which they then recognize is the result of irritations to nerves and digestion which have been going on for a long time.

If you have to lie awake at night and count the clock ticks, after an evening cup of coffee, then you know that it's better to be safe than sorry.

The risk of coffee's harm is gone when the meal-time drink is Postum.

Here's a delightful and satisfying table beverage, with charm for the taste and without harm for nerves or digestion. You know you're on the right road with Postum; there's never the possibility that you'll go once too often.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — Whatever else may be said about the women of today and their awful errors in the way of fashions and frivolities, one thing is certain—and it's a thing for which the world should send up a cry of thanks-giving; they no longer cultivate "nerves." For instance, there is Evelyn Hope Taylor. When she entered her apartment at 541 East 171st street the other evening, she ran into a burglar. She thought right offhand that he was a burglar but her "nerves" didn't lead her to scream that knowledge to his face. She spoke quite casually, as though strange men were in the habit of wandering about her home, and when he told her he had seen a burglar in the apartment and had come to get him, she thanked him as prettily as could be and asked him to help her look through the place. He did this and made no protest when she asked him if he'd mind going down the cellar with her to complete the search. When she got him down there, she opened the door of the superintendent's office, shoved him in and locked the door after him. Even a burglar can admire nerve. All he said when he saw her next chaperoned by a policeman was, "You win, kid. I lose."

—NY—

Then, in the same calm class is Mrs. Maxwell Miller, whose home at Hollis, Long Island, has been infested with a perfect drove of snakes, come from no one knows where. "Mrs. Miller killed eight the other day," explained her husband in a matter of fact way, "and we're doing a pretty good job today, too. No, we don't mind them—much. Of course they are somewhat of a nuisance, but they will go away pretty soon. They have come every fall for three years. We don't know why. Before this siege of snakes, Mrs. Miller used to be very nervous. Now her nerves are as perfect as could be."

—NY—

The climax of magnificence seems at last to have been reached in the motion picture world; although we have thought that before and learned our mistake before many months went by. It doesn't seem possible, though, that any production could exceed "Theodora," brought to this country from Italy by the Goldwyn company. The story, itself, of this daughter of a lion tamer who rose to be Empress of the Roman Empire as Justinian's wife, is drama enough to satisfy any audience of any epoch. When this story is dramatized as only the pictures with their scenic possibilities far out-reaching those of the stage, and when it is adapted from Victorien Sardou's drama, it is unnecessary to relate its triumph. The picture has been produced with more regard for history than one expects in drama but with absolutely no regard for costs. There are more sets, more animals, more action, more gorgeously than have ever been put into a screening before; and the producers have NOT made the mistake of letting all this take the place of good acting and good drama. Rita Jolivet as Theodora is by herself worth any picture I ever saw, and there are true dramatic thrills in every inch of film. Maybe all this sounds as though I am enthusiastic about "Theodora." And I certainly am. I am sorry that we didn't do the whole thing over here just to brag about. But I am glad an American producer brought it over.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect kidney backache, urinary troubles often follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney backache, and for other kidney ills. Ask your neighbor. Maysville citizens endorse them. Ben P. Fleming, country Constable, 228 Limestone street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years when I have needed them. I always get Doan's at Wood & Son's drug store. I have been greatly benefited by them. At times my kidneys get out of order and I suffer with a dull constant ache through the small of my back and the kidney secretions are irregular in passage. A box or so of Doan's have never failed to relieve the trouble in a short time."

The above statement was given November 14, 1916, and on November 22, 1920, Mr. Fleming added: "I am glad to reneve the statement I gave for publication some years ago as the cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me is still permanent. I confirm my former statement in every detail as it was all true."

KITCHIN'S NEMESIS

IN A PENIT.

Washington. — Commenting on the organization of a peanut growers' exchange in Representative Kitchin's home the Republican Publicity Association, says:

"In Scotland Neck, North Carolina, the home of Congressman Kitchin, who is the leader of the free traders in the House of Representatives, they have formed a peanut growers' exchange for the purpose of negotiating a $5,000,000 loan from the War Finance Corporation to help handle the present crop of peanuts in North Carolina and Virginia.

"Think of the irony of it! "Kitchin's party favors free trade and yet the United States imported for 1920-21 season almost 48,000,000 pounds of peanuts, of which 42,600,000 pounds were shelled. During the preceding year the United States imported the equivalent of 122,000,000 pounds of unshelled nuts. Most of the importations came from the Orient where the cheapest kind of labor is employed in the production of the nuts and in the shelling. In addition, this country imported huge quantities of peanut oil which represents not only the nuts but the labor employed in extracting the oil.

"Possibly, if he were asked the direct question as to this commodity, Mr. Kitchin would say that he favors a high import duty on peanuts, for revenue only, but that answer would be insincere. A man who is for protection only on the commodities produced in his own district and under the subterfuge of revenue, is no protectionist at all. If every Congressman were for free trade on all commodities except those of his own district, there would be no protective tariff on any commodity. Unless a man is for protection as a matter of economic principle, and is willing that his far-off fellow citizens shall be protected in the same degree as his immediate neighbors, he is not a protectionist. There can be no protective tariff unless a majority of Congress want a general protective tariff law enacted, and Mr. Kitchin never wants a general protective tariff law, however much he may stand for protection of his home industries.

"But in another respect, this action of his fellow townsmen must be a bitter pill for Mr. Kitchin. It was his party that permitted the War Finance Corporation to die — refused to revive it. The Republican party revived the Corporation and his fellow townsmen are now appealing to that institution for help.

"In two important particulars, therefore, the peanut growers of North Carolina and Virginia pay their compliments to the superior wisdom of Republicans. They assert their need of a protective tariff to protect them from the cheap importations of the Orient, and they appeal for the assistance of a War Finance Corporation to tide them over an emergency — an aid made possible by the Republican party after failure of the Democrats.

"It would seem as though the substantial people of North Carolina and Virginia would soon begin to vote their opinions at the polls as well as the singer and the Hope diamonds and all that; but it's the portion of 30 or over who do that remembering. And here she is back in the spotlights, singing in a New York cabaret. Twice every evening she goes on the program, and a good many of the "old timers" gather around to hear her; for the spirit, if not the voice, of a youngster is still there."

MURDER MYSTERY BAF- FLES PORTSMOUTH POLICE

Man and Woman Found in Deserted Farm House Near Portsmouth — Dogs Lose Trail.

Portsmouth, Ohio, Oct. 29. — Police were without a clue today in their investigation of the mysterious murder of Louise Doyle, 19, and John Wheeler Newman, 26, married and father of three children.

When Miss Doyle and Wheeler, who had been missing a week, were found shot to death in a deserted farmhouse a few miles from this city the first theory was that there had been a suicide pact.

But this theory was disposed of quickly. There was no trace of a pistol.

The police obtained bloodhounds at New Boston, Ohio, and took them Saturday to the farmhouse where Newman and Miss Doyle were found. The dogs circled the house and then trotted off to the N. & W. R. R. track, where, seemingly, they lost the trail.

Police are questioning an alleged admirer of Miss Doyle. He has given a clear account of his whereabouts on the night of the tragedy and police now believe he knows nothing of the murder.

The bodies were found in adjoining rooms of the house, that of Newman had been stretched on the floor carefully, while Miss Doyle's was huddled in a corner, as if thrown there hurriedly.

WEARE MUST BE DECLARED DEAD FOR THE SECOND TIME

Court of Appeals Trying to Unravel Mixup in Fleming County Estate — Jaffa Weare Missing.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 29. — Few instances, if any, have ever come to the attention of the Court of Appeals in which such a total disregard of money is exhibited as in the case of Jaffa Weare who, knowing that he had inherited $4,024.69 with interest from 1909, has made no claim for his estate. Weare was one of seven heirs to the estate of Jared Weare, his brother, who died in Fleming county in 1909. The other heirs are Jerome, Jacob, Jahaza, Jaakin, Jacova and Jaza.

The record in the case disclosed that Jaffa Weare left his home in Fleming county in 1882. He was legally declared dead, but was located in the spring of 1911, when his brother Jacob Weare, by accident, learned that he was at Malvern, Ark., and went to that city to inform him of the legacy. Jaffa Weare stated that he would probably come to Flemingsburg that fall to get the money.

From that time to the present nothing has been heard of him. In the meantime his sister Jacova Weare, has died, leaving him an additional sum of $2,459.24. The case came to the Court of Appeals today to determine what shall be done with the money, inasmuch as some of the heirs claim he is still living and that the estate cannot be divided until he is legally declared dead again.

The Appellate Court says that in order to divide the money due Jaffa Weare, from his sister, Jacova's, estate he must be legally declared dead again. He will probably be the only man ever legally declared dead twice.

WOMAN SAYS PASTOR ALIENATED HUSBAND.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 29. — Suit for $50,000 damages was filed in the Kenton county Circuit Court against the Rev. Henry Gillenbeck, pastor of St. Mary's church, at Morningview, Ky., by Mrs. Annie Heidemann, 60, who charges he "poisoned the mind" of her husband, Charles Heidemann, 66, against her. In a separate action Mrs. Heidemann sought to enjoin Rev. Mr. Gillenbeck from visiting her farm at Morningview. Judge Tracy granted a temporary restraining order and set the case for hearing Saturday. Mrs. Heidemann alleges her husband abandoned her as a result of the influence of the clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Heidemann were married forty-two years.
